

New results for the Liebau phenomenon via fixed point index

Milan Tvrdý

Praha, Czech Republic

e-mail: tvrdy@math.cas.cz

The aim of the contribution is to present new results on the existence of positive solutions for a nonlinear periodic boundary value problem related to the Liebau phenomenon. The methodology relies on the use of classical fixed point index. The main goal is that, for the first time, the strict positivity of the external periodic force is not required.